

Directions to Access Cost Proposals from Vendors for High Quality Curriculum Materials and Professional Learning

The State of Rhode Island has posted a Request for Proposals (RFP) and collected a number of cost and technical proposals in response. Vendors submitted proposals for approved curriculum materials, professional learning to support the implementation of high-quality curriculum materials, or both. Local Education Agencies (LEAs) in Rhode Island planning to procure new materials and train their educators on implementation can use the Master Price Agreement (MPA) that includes these proposals.

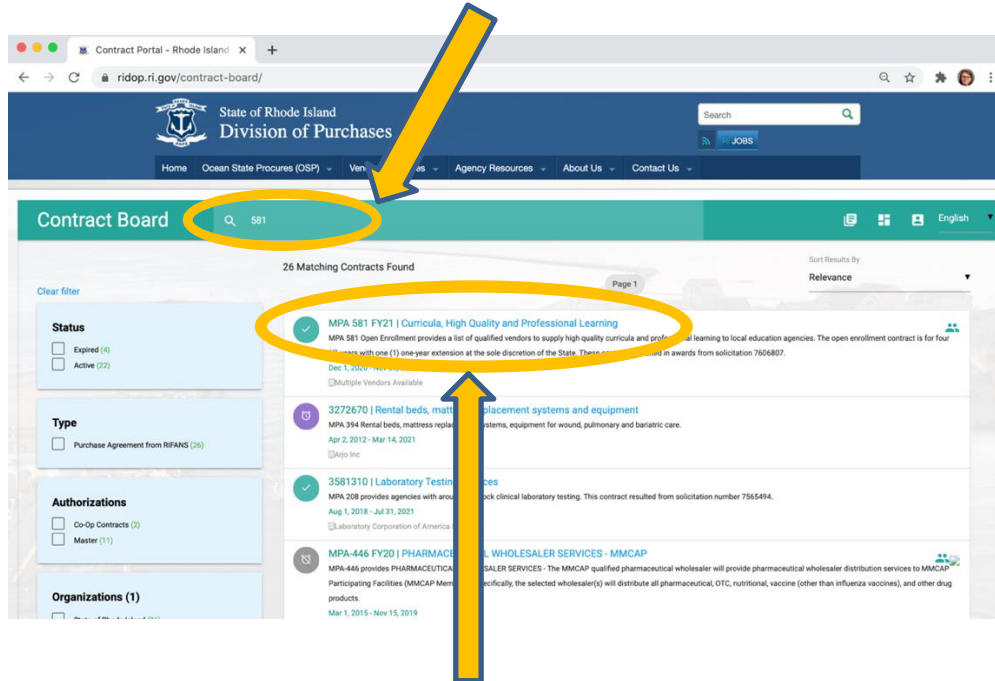

The following curricula and professional learning services are currently offered by vendors on MPA 581:

Directions to locate the MPA and cost proposals on the state website:

1. Visit the Contract Portal at <https://www.ridop.ri.gov/contract-board/>
2. Search for MPA 581 in the search bar in the green banner:

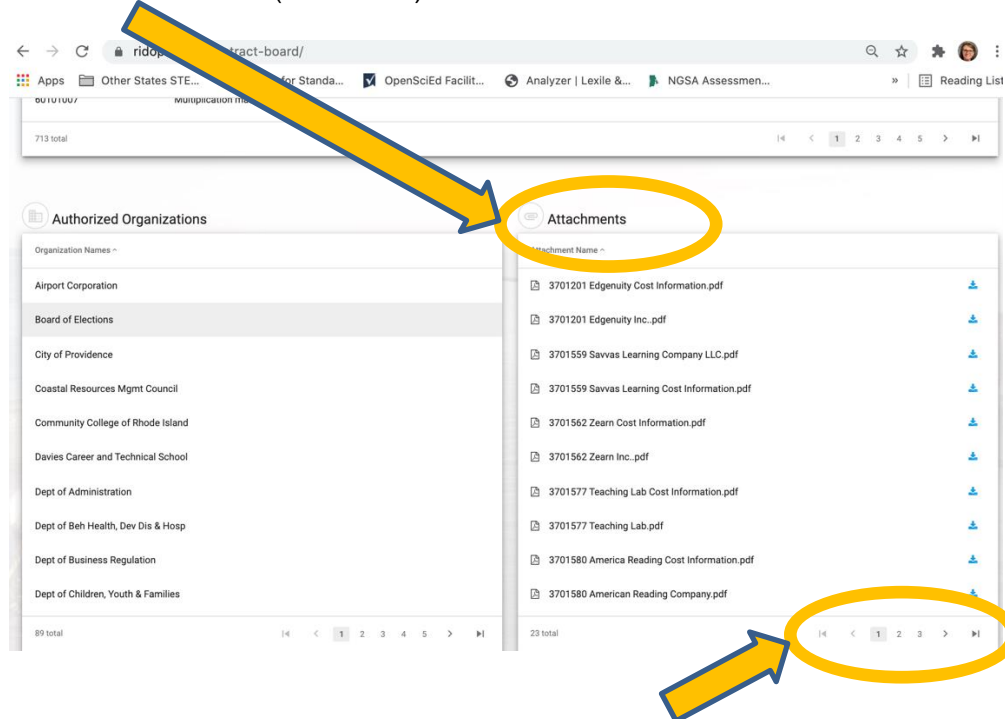

3. Click on the first item in the list, “MPA 581 FY21 Curricula, High-Quality and Professional Learning.” The following screen should appear:

4. Once the MPA 581 webpage (see above) is opened, scroll to the bottom of the page to see a list of attachments (see below):

5. Please note that the attachments section has several pages of entries. Each entry is a separate pdf file. The “Cost Information” files show the prices related to curriculum materials and/or professional learning.

6. This Master Price Agreement may be used by school districts or Local Education Agencies (LEAs). Since LEAs are considered “Political Subdivisions” within the state, all ordering and billing for these items shall be between the vendor and the school district. Neither the RI Department of Education nor the Department of Administration will be involved in the transaction. Any state agency purchasing materials or services should follow the instructions in Section 2 of the MPA 581 User Guide that is included in the attachments.

7. The prices are in effect until the MPA expires on November 30, 2024.
